Ad Text Every American's right to bear arms is absolutely sacred, period. All the liberal attacks on it are very worrying because the Amendment was not only made for self defense – it is a nation's ability to overthrow the tyranny. A Government that doesn't trust its citizens to possess weapons can never receive mutual trust or respect. And that's what things are now – there's a great mistrust between the people and the country Administration and the only way for our "leaders" to establish relations with Americans is to stop all attacks on the Second Amendment.
